Re: Paramount Pharmacy Group LLC v. Muhammad Assad Iqbal
Index No.: 64381/2025

Dear Sir or Madam:

As you may know, this firm represents Paramount Pharmacy Group LLC in the above referenced matter. Please accept this letter, along with the annexed exhibits, showing that counsel for Respondent was served with the legal pleadings via both email and USPS Priority mailing.

As background, prior to filing the pending Order to Show Cause, I confirmed with Sohela Suri, Esq. that she was representing Muhammad Assad Iqbal. Upon filing of the application, I immediately forwarded the Order to Show Cause motion papers, verified petition, etc. to Ms. Suri. (Exhibit 1). I also forwarded the Index number after same was assigned. (Exhibit 2). Chambers emailed Ms. Suri on June 2. (Exhibit 3). Finally, I sent paper copies to Ms. Suri via USPS Priority mailing. (Exhibit 4).

I have not received any responsive communication from Ms. Suri. I note that she has not indicated to me that her engagement for Respondent ceased. Therefore the undersigned submits that notice has been effectuated on the Respondent. Further, the application filed is of an urgent nature and Petitioner would not consent to any adjournments. As set forth more fully in the filed application, Petitioner seeks immediate relief.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

JEFFREY HELDMAN, ESQ.

Per my email correspondence of Wednesday, we filed today. An Index number has not been assigned yet. I attach to this email a copy of the filed verified petition, order to show cause, brief in support, and emergency affirmation. You have all the exhibits in un-redacted format so I have not attached any of those. When I get the Index number and/or signed Order, I will forward same to your attention.

Thank you.

Counsel,

The above matter has been scheduled for an in-person appearance on 6/10 at 11:30am in Courtroom 103. The OSC will be discussed and marked up at that conference. A Preliminary Conference Order and ADR forms will be uploaded to NYSCEF soon. These docs should be jointly completed prior to the above referenced appearance. Counsel for defendant has yet to register with NYSCEF for this matter, if they have not done so by the time these documents are uploaded, it is plaintiff's responsibility to forward these documents and the forthcoming scheduling letter to defendant's counsel.

Thank you,
Joseph S. Hadala, Esq.
